LA LA LA HUMAN STEPS

Santa Barbara Premiere, featuring Live Music. Édouard Lock, Artistic Director and Choreographer Édouard Lock's newest creation has been ravishing sold-out audiences throughout its European tour. Marking the 30th anniversary of La La La Human Steps, Lock's new piece places ballet technique in service to a precise, feverishly paced gestural language and invents an incredibly complex ballet performed by 11 virtuoso dancers. The narration deconstructs the famous Dido and Aeneas and Orpheus and Eurydice, two tragic love stories; the two operas are transmuted here into a single seamless ode. The music, by Gavin Bryars, is performed live by a quartet, evoking the well-known melodies of the operas by Purcell and Gluck.
